Dear Michelle Davies,

Further to the correspondence that you delivered to the court yesterday, I sought the advice of our legal team. Their response is below:

Thank you for your correspondence dated 21/11/2021. Please note, it will not affect any current or future court/tribunal proceedings as the application has not been made using the correct format, does not include within the papers an offence known in law and does not include any names, addresses and dates of birth of those defendants who are said to be a part of any allegation so service can be effective.

If you have problems with debt or court proceedings, you can find useful information on this website, <https://www.gov.uk/pay-off-debts> or through an advice service such as Citizen's Advice.

Initially, you should make your private prosecution at the magistrates' court.
