Protection Fraud + Racial Bias for an Aggressive Asian British Criminal against a Polite Caucasian British Citizen. The Crime Complaint Procedure evidences a Priority Decision for the Status Details about the Complainant and Complainee against the Crime Event Facts and Support Evidence.

Flittabus Community Transport Ltd provides Bus Services that rely on Reserved Parking at Bus Stops. At 10.25 on 6th August 2024 an Asian British Man aged 40 to 50 was sat in the driving seat of the black sedan vehicle registration EX 14 5XL (or EX14 SXL). It occupied the Bus Stop Reserved Parking at the Tesco Supermarket in Coniston Road, Flitwick, Bedfordshire. The Route 140 Bus arrived. Repeat Horn Sounding was ignored by the Car Driver. The Bus Driver got out of the bus, approached the car and asked the Car Driver to move. It got an Aggressive Refusal by the Car Driver. The Bus Driver withdrew. Dr Spivack was a Bus Passenger who witnessed the events. She got off the bus, approached the Car Driver and asked him to vacate the Reserved Parking. It got an Aggressive Hostile Threatening Response from the Car Driver. The event ended about 10.30. A Crime Complaint Offer by Citizen Dr Spivack got Grateful Acceptance by the Bus Driver because he did not have the time. On 8th August 2024 the Crime Complaint by Dr Spivack got Reference 40/37707/24. On 16th August 2024 the absence of a Video Record was given for an Insufficient Evidence Reason for a No Further Action Decision. It raises Investigation Fraud Suspicions against Bedford Police.

Do you feel race, disability, religion, sexual orientation, or transgender identity were a factor in this crime? Yes
Please tell us why you feel this way

Because the reason given by Bedfordshire Police for the decision to take no further action re the incident on 6 July 2024 is the absence of a CCTV Record yet in 2006 PC 5467 Elliot reported to the General Osteopathic Council (GOsC) that I was "purse-pulling" and there was no CTV recording and no witnesses either. This resulted in loss of my career and livelihood. Therefore there is one standard for one person and a different standard for another. A CCTV Record is required to investigate and convict an Asian but none is required to convict a White person. More than this - on 14 January 2006 I opened my practice out of hours to provide an emergency triage to someone I had been led to believe was in mortal danger - they told me they had already been to the GP and to Casualty. My practice was closed for the weekend and I was not under any obligation to provide an appointment out of hours. In fact I am not under any obligation to offer anyone an appointment at any time - it is solely at my discretion as to whether I grant someone an appointment. However under laws pertaining to First Aid and medical emergencies I had been advised in writing that I have a legal duty to step in otherwise I can be charged with criminal negligence. The intention was to triage for meningitis, encephalitis or subarachnoid haemorrhage and then refer to Accident & Emergency if necessary. I was not charging a fee for doing this but PC 5467 Elliot told the GOsC I was "purse-pulling" without my knowledge and without a recorded interview and without providing me with a lawyer and without Trial. The people I had acted to help were uncooperative with the Triage, became aggressive and violent and at least one of them was under the influence of a Class A drug. Lucy Greco assaulted me causing permanent damage to my cervical spine for which I have received no Criminal Injuries Compensation. Contrast this with the case of Jane Fruisiance a Nurse who lives in Flitwick who was given the Local Policing Commander's Certificate of Merit for talking a man out of committing suicide on a bridge in Bedford - report in Bedfordshire Times & Citizen 14 February 2013 "Recognition for Nurse who helped save man's life". No discrimination there then?
Osteopathy is derived from a theological premise rooted in Native American Indian culture so there is a racist / religious discrimination motive here.

Dear Bedfordshire Police,

I noticed this article in the news a few days ago:

Three police officers are assaulted at Manchester Airport after they are set upon as they investigated an abandoned car

Greater Manchester Police were inspecting the car, which is uninsured, after it was left in an unauthorised space at the airport's Terminal Two on Wednesday morning.

https://www.dailymail.co.uk/news/article-13769543/Three-police-officers-assaulted-Manchester-Airport-set-investigated-abandoned-car.html?ito=email_share_article-top

The incident on Saturday 6 July 2024 which I reported to Bedfordshire Police on Monday 8 July could have had a more serious outcome - and you are saying because it was not recorded by CCTV it doesn't merit investigation in spite of there being several witnesses, yet things that never happened let alone not recorded or witnessed such as "purse-pulling" you consider merits a Statement of Fact - or rather a Statement of Fiction - to a Statutory Regulator.

The attitude of willfull contempt demonstrated by the Asian car driver of vehicle reg EX14 5XL (or EX14 SXL) on Saturday 6 July 2024 I consider to be a "red flag" and so does everyone else I have spoken to about it. Julia

You will see the email exchanges with Bedfordshire Police yesterday.

When I got back from grocery shopping on Saturday a message had been left on my answering machine at 11:32 from Bedfordshire Police acknowledging receipt of the second submission on Thursday and wanting to have a chat with me but no 1471 was available for the call to get their phone number. I emailed them to thank them for contact and crime report submission acknowledgement.

At some stage in this what about asking Bedfordshire Police to write to the General Osteopathic Council retracting their purse-pulling statement? This would test their willingness to cooperate with remedies wouldn't it? Julia

Re: CRT/B/00711/2024

Dear Holly,

Re: unique reference number is CRT/B/00711/2024

Thankyou for your email this morning to confirm receipt of the complaint submitted last Thursday 22 August and your stated committment to take actions to investigate the compliant.

Please could you take note that the submission on Thursday 22 August was not intended to be a continuation of Crime Reference 40/37707/24 submitted on Monday 8 July but meant to be a new complaint.

What happened was when I was filling in the online form and I needed to go back a couple of pages to correct the dates and times I had entered wrongly and the software thought I wanted to submit an ammendment to an existing complaint. I started the submission afresh but it still seemed to submit it as an ammendment.

Therefore please can you treat the current matter as a new complaint. Thankyou.

I look forward to hearing from you in due course. Julia
